

Certificate IV (RGR40619) Horse Breeding

EXPRESSIONS OF INTEREST 2023

Nationally Accredited Units in this Course

- Carry out procedures for foaling down mares
- Care for broodmares
- Mentor in the workplace
- Prepare horses for sale
- Handle and care for breeding stallions
- Provide care and treatment of horses
- Maintain horse stud records
- Manage horse health and welfare
- Educate stallions for breeding
- Supervise handling of horses
- Provide work skill instruction
- Oversee care and supervise staff raising young horses
- Raise young horses
- Oversee site biosecurity and infection controls working with animals
- Re-educate horses to manage behaviours and/or transition to new purposes
- Manage foaling and post-foaling problems
- Supervise natural horse mating program
- Contribute to assessment

SUITABILITY

WHO CAN APPLY:

Suited to stud employees looking to gain further Horse Breeding qualifications. On farm assessments and recognition of existing skills can be negotiated with eligible students.

DETAILS

DATES: 2023 (tbc)

COST: (tbc)

EXPRESSIONS OF INTEREST:

HTBA (02) 5504 3816
careers@htba.com.au

DELIVERY

SCONE CAMPUS:

18 Units of Competency
12 Months Flexible Delivery
Online

Practical workshops delivered at
TAFE NSW Scone or on Farm
Assessed (Cond Apply)

Expressions of interest now open for 2023 enrolments

This course offers information and skills to further develop the career of the existing workforce. It is advised that the applicant has a minimum of 3 years industry experience or completed the Cert III Horse Breeding.

For additional career development courses please call TBNSW: (02) 5504 3818