

Certificate IV (ACM40418) Veterinary Nursing

EQUINE FOCUSED

Nationally Accredited Units in this Course

- Horse behaviour and safe handling
- Animal & equine anatomy and physiology
- Horse health and welfare
- Foaling mares and Nurse Foals
- Admission and discharge procedures
- Veterinary reception and client support
- How to monitor and nurse animals
- Injury care and signs of ill-health and disease
- Surgery and anaesthesia support practices
- Diagnostic procedures (imaging and pathology)
- Nutrition and dental nursing care
- Pharmacy and drug administration practices

Assist the veterinarian with sick and injured animals along with various other duties in support of the veterinary clinic practices.

SUITABILITY

WHO CAN APPLY:

Suited to stud employees looking to gain further Horse Breeding qualifications.

Completed Certificate II or III level ACM qualification.

DETAILS

DATES: 2023 (tbc)

COST: (tbc)

EXPRESSIONS OF INTEREST:

HTBA (02) 5504 3816
careers@htba.com.au

DELIVERY

SCONE CAMPUS:

Flexible Delivery

Practical workshops delivered at
TAFE NSW Scone or on Farm
Assessed (Cond Apply)

Expressions of interest now open for 2023 enrolments

This course offers information and skills to further develop the career of the existing workforce. It is advised that the applicant has a minimum of 3 years industry experience or completed the Cert III Horse Breeding.

For additional career development courses please call TBNSW: (02) 5504 3818